NEWS FROM AFAR.

Guiteau Will Not be Allowed to Issue Any More Addresses.

A Patriotic Mob in a Detroit Theatre on the Muscles.

How the Verdict Was Received in London—The Week's Failures.

London, January 26.—The Standard, Daily Telegraph, Morning Post, News and Times express their satisfaction at the conviction of Guiteau, but all, with more or less severity, criticise the conduct of the trial.

The Week's Failures.
New York, Jan. 27.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s mercantile agency reports the failures throughout the country during the week as 155, which is a considerable reduction compared with the recent week. The distribution is as follows: Eastern states 8; Western states, 48; Southern states, 59; Middle states, 21; Pacific coast and territories, 10; New York City, 9. The failures in the South are still excessive. In New York City no stoppage of importance has occurred.

Very Proper.
Washington, Jan. 27.—Scoville and Warden Crocker had a discussion at the jail yesterday as to the propriety of allowing Guiteau's address to go out. Scoville at first opposed but finally yielded in this instance. He said so long as the papers will print Guiteau's screeds he fancies he has the ear of the press; that he is superior to his counsel; and can manage his case entirely his own way, while as a matter of fact he is INDEBTED TO HIS OWN UTTERANCES for yesterday's verdict. Warden Crocker suggested: "If you will not supply him with any more stationary I will see that he does no more writing." It was finally settled between counsel and warden that for the next week no one shall be permitted to interview the prisoner, and that no communication shall go to the public.

A Patriotic Mob.
Detroit, Jan. 26.—Quite an excitement was stirred up at the opera house last night, where Herrman, the magician, was exhibiting. Between the performances the result of the Guiteau trial was announced, when the audience at once broke into loud applause. In the midst of the noise a hiss from the gallery was heard. As soon as the signs of approbation subsided a little the hiss became more audible and there were cries of condemnation. A special officer instantly discovered the man who was hissing, and stepping down the aisle, advised him to desist. This attracted attention to him, and before the officer could get him out of the theatre a crowd of men and boys near by pitched upon the offender. The fellow was badly bruised by his patriotic assailants, and was removed with great difficulty. He managed to help himself as soon as he was put outside of the theatre and escaped.

The Division of Dakota.
Yankton, Jan. 26.—A mass convention in Southern Dakota assembled at Sioux Falls yesterday to consider the question of the division of Dakota and the admission of the southern half as a State. Over 700 representatives were present from 32 counties, made up of the most influential Republicans and Democrats of Southern Dakota, representing all professions and branches of business. Great enthusiasm prevailed.
Ex-Gov. Edmunds, of Yankton, was maid chairman.
Thirty-four delegates were chosen to visit Washington and urge Congress to pass the enabling act now pending for the admission of Dakota and to give the northern half of the territory a government. They claim 200,000 people in the southern half of the territory, and 60,000 in the northern half, and demand admission to the Union and enfranchisement as rights guaranteed by the fundamental law of the land. Entire harmony prevailed, and rousing speeches were made by the most prominent Democrats, as well as Republicans. The delegations leave for Washington at a very early day.

Adrian Racket.
Adrian, Mo., Jan. 28, 1882.
EDITOR TIMES: The festival given by the ladies of the M. E. church on Thursday night, the receipts were $55.50. They had such a bountiful supply of provisions that on Friday night they had a second supper, the receipts of which I have not yet learned. Mr. H. Dore was the recipient of a mustache cup as the ugliest man in the house. The cup was presented by Miss H. Hogan. Miss Mattie Hutchinson, of Booneville, Mo., was the recipient of a pair of beautiful vases as the best looking lady in the house. Mr. Coney Huddleston had the honor of presenting them to the beautiful lady, who is unfortunately deprived of speech or hearing.
The young folks are saving up their quarters to attend the concert to be given at the church on next Thursday and Friday nights. From what we can learn the concert will be a first class entertainment. One of the actors has performed her part very successfully in St. Louis, and before the Legislature of Mo. Another is a first cousin to the celebrated Litta, and very much resembles that lady. Most of the class have never been upon the stage, but I learn that they are learning fast, and their plays are said to be the concentrated essence of yankee wit, and the funniest in print. The songs are comic to classic. The entertainment is for the benefit of the M. E. church at this place.

Mr. Aaron Satterlee has enlarged his office at the ware house for the benefit of the public.

Butler merchants were in town yesterday looking for a location for a branch house.

Moudy & Co. have built a 20x70 foot room next to their store house.

Wild ducks and other water fowl are plenty.

More Thunder From Adrian.
Adrian, Mo., Jan. 29.
Our festival is over and was a grand success, realizing about $85.00 net for the church; and there was nearly a wagon load of provisions left, such as roast chickens, turkey, fruit and jelly cake, doughnuts, nuts, candy etc., and we thought at one time of sending for the local of the Butler TIMES to clean up, but finally better judgment prevailed, and the uncut cakes, biscuits and fowls, ham etc. were voted to a poor widow with five small children, and Dr. Gilmore was delegated to deliver them, thus combining true religion with pastime.
A series of concerts, under the auspices of the M. E. church committee, and conducted by Dr. Parks, as musical director and floor manager, will be inaugurated next Thursday night. Programs are already out, and consists of solos, duettes, quartettes, acting, charades, theatricals etc. The management trust to make enough so that coupled with the receipts of the festival, they may nearly lift the church debt. Concerts to be held in the church.

Dr. Parks & Little have received a fresh lot of vaccine virus at their office, next to Dr. Hall's drug store, and are vaccinating the whole neighborhood. "An ounce of preventative is better than a pound of cure."

"A new broom sweeps clean," and Little Carl, of the two horse grocery, is sweeping clean so far, and is verifying the old adage of "the more competition the more work," and may the best man win.

Moudy & Co., have completed their new implement store, and already filled it with the latest and best farming implements, wagons etc., and thus does the boom boom.

H. Dore, the depot agent, was voted the moustache cup at the festival. He will now send off for a moustache of the most approved pattern.

Our steam mill is being thoroughly adjusted by a first class practical mill-wright, and will soon make the finest pastrv flower.

Aaron Satterlee has the rock already on the foundation and will build a large store house.

Rev. Howerton is preparing to double the capacity of his hotel by the addition of two L's.

If the present weather holds, ice will be ripe again, soon.

E. X. PRESS.
Dr. Scott will return from New York in February, and continue to make regular visits to our city on the 15th and 26th. Office in Palace Hotel 9-11

THE LINKS OF LOVE.
Oh, sweeter far than wealth, than fame, than all,
Is first and passionate love—it stands alone!
This morning at 10 o'clock at the Palace Hotel, the Rev. Mr. Brown of this city united in the holy bands of matrimony Mr. Walter E. Pierce and Miss Georgianna Margaret Mundy, both of Rich Hill. The happy couple were attended by Mr. C. R. Walters, the handsome, wholesome and talented city editor of the Mining Review and the beautiful and accomplished Miss Kate Fleming of the same flourishing city. Mr. Pierce, the groom, is the genial and handsome proprietor of the Arcade Hotel of Rich Hill, and is a young gentleman of great popularity and counts his friends as the shells of the ocean. In taking to his heart and home Miss Georgianna—whose beautiful eyes have wrought such havoc with his aforesaid heart—he has secured one of the Infant Wonder's fairest flowers—a lovely girl with the spirit of a true woman, who will make him a faithful wife and one of whom he will always be proud. Love, conqueror of all hearts, brought about this union and the consummation of this "little affair of the heart" (aforesaid) was one long and devoutly wished for (especially by the contracting parties of course) and in the golden glitter and shimmering sunshine of their happiness, their myriad of friends wish them a long life of joy, peace and love. The happy couple, accompanied by Mrs. R. A. Andrus, mother of the bride, Mrs. Passmore, mother of the groom, Captain and Mrs. Kussmaul, Mr. Walters and Miss Fleming and others left for Rich Hill on the noon train to-day.—Among the prominent guests not mentioned above who were present at the ceremony which was conducted in Mr. Brown's usual graceful manner, are the following: Judge E. A. Henry, Mr. Woodhouse and daughter, of Rich Hill, Misses Teft and Richards, Capt. and Mrs. Hannan and daughter, Miss Lottie Willie, Mr. C. P. Reeder, A. A. Stansbury, Dr. Turner and others.
COL. MULBERRY SELLERS.

WE WEDDED TO LAURA—She was beautiful, she loved her devotedly, and happiness seemed to pervade their every act. But trouble came. Sickness paled Laura's blooming cheeks, dulled her sparkling eyes, enfeebled her constitution, emaciated her beautiful form, unstrung her delicate nerves, and unfitted her for active life. With an aching heart her husband consulted doctors, administered their medicines, and talked with friends. Notwithstanding all this care and attention, there appeared no relief for her aching head, that painful back, that irregular uterine action and that emaciation. Another friend called who had seen such sickness, and at once suggested the use of Dr. Dromgole's English Female Bitters, as he had known it to cure similar cases. Her husband procured it at once, and placed her upon its use. He had the satisfaction of seeing Laura restored to health again. 8-2w

EDITOR TIME:—We noticed in your last issue an account of the contest between the Tyro and Eureka Literary Societies held at Virginia, January 14th. The account in the main is correct, but judging from the biasness of the article it must have originated in the mind of an elated Eureka. While it is true that the Eureka's gained on Declamation and Paper and the Tyro's on Oratory and Debate, your informer forgot to state that the Eureka's came up de-funct on Essay and that they had to put their best piece of timber on two duties to secure said result. Furthermore, the writer in drawing his conclusion fails to acknowledge the universally conceded fact, that wherever there are but four duties performed, the society gaining Oratory and Debate (the two most difficult duties) is acknowledged to be victor.
Hoping "Squib" will receive this merely as a correction, we close.
ALPHA.

"Oh! woman! whose form and whose soul
Are the spell and the light of each path we pursue;
Whether sunn'd in the tropics, or chilled at the pole,
If woman be there there is happiness too!"
Beautiful sentiments indeed for a married man, but why do you refuse to buy Dr. Dromgole's ENGLISH FEMALE BITTERS for your poor sickly wife, who has been imploring you to spend $1 for them. Get them at once and cure her. 8-2w

Church Festival.

The more we see of the new post office boxes, the better we like them. They are a credit to our young and flourishing city, and for convenience and beauty are not surpassed by those of many metropolitan cities. Just think of five hundred boxes with and without locks. Those that lock have doors of golden bronze of the very latest style, and the keys to them, no one of which will unlock any door but the one it belongs to, which of itself is a great convenience and safeguard against intrusion. The boxes are shaped somewhat like the letter V. The apex or head fronting the east and the base resting on wings extending the entire width of the room. As you enter the room you are greeted by the general delivery box which occupies the apex or head, where the handsome face of our friend Charlie Holcomb is seen wreathed in smiles, ever accommodating and pleasant. Above this box are the words, general delivery, written in bronze letters that look to be pure gold. The right wing is occupied by the stamp and money order windows, which are very elaborate and handsome and at which our public functionary, the post master, is generally seen. In the left wing is the entrance door through which the post master and assistants pass behind the boxes. The boxes where letters and papers are deposited for transmission are exquisite pieces of workmanship, legibly labeled in bronze. The entire office is made of white pine, with walnut trimmings, which imparts to it a fine appearance. Oh it's a daisy and shows the pride that our post master takes in ornamenting the queen city of the Southwest.—Take it all in all it is one of the handsomest offices in the country, and all of us are proud of it.

CONSUMPTION CURED.
An old physician, retired from active practice having placed in his hands by an East India Missionary the formula of a simple vegetable remedy for the speedy and permanent cure of Consumption, bronchitis, catarrh, asthma, and all throat and lung affections, also a positive and radical cure for general debility and all nervous complaints, after having thoroughly tested its wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, feels it his duty to make it known to his suffering fellows. The recipe with full particulars, directions for preparation and use, and all necessary advice and instructions for successful treatment at your own home, will be received by return mail, free of charge by addressing with stamp or stamped self-addressed envelope to DR. M. E. BELL, 6-ly 161 N. Calvert St. Baltimore, Md.

If a man owns to-day ten thousand dollars worth of real estate in Butler, by this time next year, if we get the Fort Scott, St. Louis & Chicago road the same property will be worth on the market twelve thousand dollars at the lowest figure. This is not a bet. We have known a greater per cent than that realized in other places, and instance Dallas and Ft. Worth Texas, Atlanta, Georgia, and to come nearer home, our Kansas City. It was the railroad enterprise of the citizens of those cities that made them. They all paid heavily for their railroads.

When you want a nice, nobbly lot go to
